

Pax Christi Income and Expenditure 2013

Income - Comparison 2012 / 2013

Expenditure - Comparison 2012 / 2013

If you would like a copy of the full accounts for 2013 please contact the office.

Pax Christi, St Joseph's, Watford Way, London NW4 4TY

Pax Christi Annual Report 2013-2014

At the time of the last Annual Report Pope Francis was newly elected. Since then, he has continued to affirm, on so many occasions, the vocation of all Christians to be peacebuilders. In his Message for World Peace Day this year he appealed to all: "Give up the way of arms and go out to meet the other in dialogue, pardon and reconciliation to build justice, trust and hope around you!" It is Pax Christi's work, rooted in Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching, to help bring that world into being by action and campaigning at international level, by the work of individual members at grassroots and the resources, energy and creativity of the small staff in the Hendon office: Pat, Fausta, Matt, Peter, with the team of volunteers. Our website, increasingly, is a source of ideas, information and inspiration for individual members. It is the members up and down the country, working in their own parishes and

Pax Christi People

President: Bishop Malcolm McMahon op
Executive Committee

Chair: Anne Dodd, Vice-Chair: Michael Mitchell, Treasurer: John Dowbekin; with Emma Atherton, Davina Bolt, Sr Christine Charlwood, Arn Dekker, Jan Harper, Paul McGowan and Ann Farr, (coopted).

In the office

Pat Gaffney, General Secretary, Fausta Valentine, Administrator, Matt Jeziorski, Youth and Schools, Peter Hickey, Publications and member support, with Valerie Flessati, Editor, and volunteers – Sr Mary Ann Tyler, Lauri Clarke, Helga Calloway, Jackie Coleman, Peter McNamara, Nuala Flynn, Rebecca McLaughlin, and many more who help with mailings and events.

Anne Dodd, Chair of Pax Christi

(on the right, at RAF Waddington protest against Drone warfare)

communities, who are Pax Christi's voice. That voice, in the prevailing culture of militarism, needs to be much stronger. This depends on each one of us - to ensure that Pax Christi resources are used, that Peace Sunday is marked in every parish, that more people are encouraged to become members and that we find new energy in building, together, the justice-based peace that Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching speak of.

www.paxchristi.org.uk

Pax Christi by numbers

34 new members and 65 new supporter parishes

42 mentions in press and 8 articles contributed in other journals

31 days in schools in 11 Dioceses of which 13 were new visits

80 copies distributed and 966 Youtube viewings of our Give Peace a Budget dvd

Active in 11 coalitions including Peace Education Network, Drones Wars UK, Kairos Britain, Scrap Trident

27 talks and workshops given on Israel Palestine

17 talks and presentations in 9 Dioceses by General Secretary

675 publication orders processed, 114 for Peace Sunday

Pax Christi through the year 2013-2014

May

Pax Christi 2013 Peace Awards

AGM with Tina Beattie speaking on morality of Drone warfare.

July

National Justice & Peace Conference: our workshops on military v. social spending

Launch of Teach Peace primary resource pack

November

Launch of petition to Stop under 18 recruitment to armed forces

January

Peace Sunday

"Thank you for the Peace Sunday resources. The children were delighted with their badges and very proud of them. We were urged to pray for peace and there was a collection... One of our local schools took the Peace Garden leaflet so seeds of peace will flourish amongst the children and staff."

February

Pax Christi ICON at Student Christian Movement / FoR Conference and then to Shrewsbury Diocese for 'Year of Peace' events

August

Greenbelt Festival, Cheltenham with focus on Give Peace a Budget

September

Silent vigil on eve of international arms fair

October

Pax Christi delegation to Israel Palestine

School conference on Franz Jägerstätter—with Severin Renoldner, Pax Christi Austria

December

Annual Advent Peace Service
Launch of new website

April

'Global Day of Action on Military Spending' with support resources produced for church groups

Scrap Trident Tour with Bruce Kent

March

Ash Wednesday - 32nd year at the MoD
New leaflet The Catholic Church and Nuclear Weapons

