

WHO MAKES NUCLEAR WEAPONS?

WHAT WE PAY FOR THEM

All of the companies listed are involved in the manufacture and maintenance of components essential to the production of nuclear weapons for the USA, the UK and France. But this is not an exhaustive list. It focuses only on companies funded from Council Tax revenues through the West Midlands Pension Fund.

COMPANY	SPENDING (£)	WMPF invests (£m)	Council Tax?
Boeing (USA)	50,000,000,000	3,600,000	Yes
Honeywell (USA)	42,000,000,000	3,100,000	Yes
Lockheed Martin (USA)	32,000,000,000	2,200,000	Yes
General Dynamics (USA)	24,000,000,000	1,600,000	Yes
Airbus Group (EU)	22,000,000,000	2,700,000	Yes
Northrop Grumman (USA)	22,000,000,000	1,300,000	Yes
BAE Systems (UK)	18,000,000,000	6,600,000	Yes
Raytheon (USA)	16,000,000,000	1,300,000	Yes
Safran (France)	9,000,000,000	1,100,000	Yes
Fluor (USA)	8,000,000,000	600,000	Yes
Finmeccanica (Italy)	8,000,000,000	300,000	Yes
Textron (USA)	8,000,000,000	500,000	Yes
Jacobs Engr. (USA)	6,000,000,000	200,000	Yes
Thales (France)	4,500,000,000	400,000	Yes
Serco (USA)	3,000,000,000	1,000,000	Yes
Babcock&Wilcox (USA)	1,500,000,000	1,500,000	Yes
TOTAL	273,000,000,000	26,000,000

Sources: Don't Bank on the Bomb, PAX Netherlands, November 2015 (figures converted from $US)
Annual Statement of Equity Holdings, WMPF, 31.03.14 (figures rounded to nearest £100,000)