About the ICON

The Icon of Peace is a large sacred painting made by monks at the Monastery of St John in the Desert, near Jerusalem. It is dedicated to Pax Christi, the international peace movement

The Icon of Peace depicts stories from the bible, and saints of both Eastern and Western traditions, linked by the theme of reconciliation.

The Icon has been

- Displayed in several Cathedrals around the country,
- Used in parish communities and schools
- The focal point at a number of Diocesan gatherings
- Used by religious communities at celebrations and conferences
- Used at interfaith gatherings: it speaks to the three Abrahamic traditions.
- By university and prison chaplaincy teams

Practical details

Size: The Icon is large! It is 82 cm wide x 2 cm deep x 150 cm high. It comes in a specially made case which is 94 cm side x 8 cm deep x 162 cm high. We can also provide a specially made display stand which is 162 cm high. The Icon weight is 13.5 Kg, with box it is 35 Kg

Transport: those wishing to borrow the ICON must arrange transportation from the Pax Christi office or from the last place of use. This means providing a car large enough to carry the Icon in its case.

Looking after the Icon: we ask that great care be taken in packing/unpacking and moving the Icon and that it be displayed with care and respect. It should not be placed anywhere where you feel there is a danger of it being marked or damaged.

Costs: we do not charge for the Icon but if you were able to make a donation to Pax Christi that would be appreciated

Bookings: there is a form overleaf for bookings. You need to ensure that you allow time on either side of your use of the Icon for transportation. Once we receive the booking we will check availability and get back to you as soon as possible.

Report: we welcome reports on how the Icon itself has been used and how materials have been adapted and developed. This allows us to share good practice with others—enhancing the value and use of the Icon as a tool for peacemaking.
