

Get together for peace on Sunday 11 November 2018

1 pm – Remembrance and Peace – a short ceremony with readings by actor Michael Mears and music by Maya Youssef, Syrian singer and 78-string qanun player.
at Tavistock Square, London WC1

Café open!

2-5 pm – PEACEFUL FUTURES
Explore ways we can all help to
'make peace happen' for the world.
at Friends House, Euston Road, NW1

Children's activities with Woodcraft Folk
Live music with King Toadfish & the All Weather Riders community band
Films & exhibitions
Peace Market with 20 stalls & campaigns

All welcome! Bring family, friends, colleagues

Organisations taking part include

Woodcraft Folk, Women's International League for Peace & Freedom,
Women in Black, War Resisters' International, Servas, Scientists for Global Responsibility, Right to Refuse to Kill Group, Quaker Peace & Social Witness, Peace Pledge Union, Peace News,
Peace Education Network, Pax Christi, Network for Peace,
Musicians for Peace and Disarmament, Movement for the Abolition of War,
Housmans Bookshop, ForcesWatch, Fellowship of Reconciliation, Drone Wars UK, Conscience, Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament, Campaign Against Arms Trade, Anglican Pacifist Fellowship

Woodcraft Folk

is a movement for children and young people. Play activities are facilitated by experienced volunteers.

King Toadfish & the All Weather Riders are a community band from East London, playing a variety of different types of music.

www.facebook.com/kingtoadfish

Exhibitions include

The world is my country
A VISUAL CELEBRATION OF THE PEOPLE AND MOVEMENTS THAT OPPOSED THE FIRST WORLD WAR

Short Films Conscientious Objector, Watford's Quiet Heroes, These Dangerous Women, Women's Peace Crusade, Unseen March, War School, Conflict and Climate Change

Event organised by the FIRST WORLD WAR PEACE FORUM a national coalition of peace organisations which has used the centenary to highlight the role of the men and women who opposed that war. The story of the conscientious objectors to military service, many of whom were imprisoned for their refusal to co-operate with the military system, has inspired today's peace activists to continue to work against war and promote a peaceful and just world.

contact: mail@networkforpeace.org.uk