

Contacts and resources

---

-  Pax Christi is the International Catholic Movement for Peace. Working in over one hundred countries Pax Christi members work for peace through prayer, education, and campaigning.

paxchristi.org.uk

paxchristi.net

The Catholic Worker is an international radical Christian movement. Ecumenical, pacifist, and anarchist, Catholic Worker communities are communities of hospitality and resistance.

londoncatholicworker.org

The Campaign against the Arms Trade (CAAT) works nonviolently to end the international arms trade.

caat.org.uk

European Network
Against Arms Trade

Connects groups and individuals who see the arms trade as a threat to peace, security and development

enaat.org

Stockholm International Peace Research Institute—excellent independent research agency on global military spending and arms production and transfer

sipri.org

No faith in War: Christians challenge the global arms trade

Thank you for joining us at this workshop examining the Christian nonviolent response to the scandal of the arms trade. If you want to get involved in campaigning against the arms trade or in wider nonviolent work for peace then check out the organisations listed, they offer valuable support, resources, and campaigning ideas and opportunities.

Why this workshop?

Because the arms trade is causing havoc to the lives of millions around our globe.

Because as Christians we promote life not death.

Global share of major arms exports by the 10 largest exporters, 2013–17

Source: SIPRI Arms Transfers Database (12 March 2018) © SIPRI 2018

Global share of major arms imports by the 10 largest importers, 2013–17

Source: SIPRI Arms Transfers Database (12 March 2018) © SIPRI 2018

Pope Francis, 2015

...we ask peace for this world subjected to arms dealers, who profit from the blood of men and women.

Arms trade protests, Berlin