

How young Quakers can witness for peace at the Arms Fair

STOP THE ARMS FAIR

Come and meet with other young Quakers to attend the silent vigil held the evening before the September DSEi arms fair at the ExCeL centre in East London. DSEi is the world's biggest arms fair. For one week every two years, arms companies display their weapons to buyers (including human rights abusing regimes) from around the world.

Meeting up

We will attend the silent peace vigil held the evening before the September DSEi arms fair starts. The multi faith peace vigil is organised by Campaign Against Arms Trade, Pax Christi and Quakers. There will be Friends House staff and Friends who campaign for peace at this event.

This is an informal opportunity, parent/s or guardian/s should be happy that the young people attending the event can take responsibility for themselves.

It would be very helpful for us to know who to expect, so please register your interest in joining us for this event by contacting Cat Waitthaka at catw@quaker.org.uk
