

Opposing War Memorial Workshop

for Conscientious Objectors

Create your own peace handkerchief

The workshop...

Come along and create a peace handkerchief of your own design. Lead artist Kate Ive will share information with you about the upcoming memorial and help you design your peace handkerchief. You will create a simple emblem, image or text design which Kate will then help you to embroider onto fabric.

Locations...

Glasgow: Thurs 14th Nov 6.30 - 8.30pm at Milk Cafe, 452 Victoria Road

Edinburgh: Wed 27th Nov 6.30 - 8.30pm at Edinburgh University, Room....

Dundee: Sat 30th Nov 2.30 - 4.30pm at Dundee Central Library, The Wellgate

Book your place...

Please RSVP to secure your place or ask any questions about the workshop to mail@kateive.co.uk or call 07879 436 990.

Requires no previous embroidery/art experience. All ages welcome!

About the Memorial...

In 2018 Kate was chosen to design an Opposing War Memorial for Conscientious Objectors to be installed in Princes Street Gardens, Edinburgh.

The memorial will include a reflection space with a bronze peace tree sculpture, inspired by Davidia involucrata 'The Handkerchief Tree'. The tree will be covered in bronze embroidered handkerchiefs, each showing a different aspect of conscientious objection, opposition to war and peacebuilding.

FREE WORKSHOP