Technology and media have led to new kinds of community. Explore this and get rid of what is not essential.

Empower parishes: for example to become carbon neutral.

We are more aware of those already excluded from the Eucharist. Encourage diverse forms of liturgy which are open to all who are searching for God, instead of only focussing on the Eucharist.

Empower lay people to be good ministers.

During lockdown, it was even clearer that women are excluded from what is seen as important in the church.

The Church must offer more positions of leadership to women.

Illuminate the role of women in peace processes and political decision-making.

The Role of Women

Reach out to other faith communities and take the Church to where people are.

Thank you for all you do. You inspire us!

Please release your World Peace Day message in good time so we can prepare to share it on Peace Sunday.

Please continue to speak about politics, forgotten people, climate change, hunger and how things are connected.

We will support you by speaking up too.

Call fewer international meetings to reduce air travel.

We have seen how inter-related and international everything is, including justice/injustice. Keep this learning in mind.

Continue the preferential option for the poor.

Divert money from the military towards care for our common home and tackling inequality and poverty.

It is not wealth-creators who are keyworkers but many of us - all!

Pax Christi's nonviolence work is so important as a future direction. Write an encyclical on nonviolence!

Use the methods of nonviolence to move forward after coronavirus.

Redefine security in terms of the well-being and flourishing of people and the environment.

Caring for refugees is a Christian imperative in the context of nonviolence.
