2

Let us join the march
for the sake of our children,
and a future hope
that can still be theirs;
we will walk the miles
with a mind to make it;
we will sing our songs,
we will breathe our prayers.

4

Let us plead our cause
for the sake of the nations;
with the Lord's great love
still at large today;
we will wear the badge
of our clear commitment
as we tread the path
on the pilgrim way.

Let us set our goals
for the sake of the needy;
let us persevere
though the road seems long;
we reject all faith
in the stockpiled weapons;
we will speak the truth
to the rich and strong.

Let us trust in God
for the sake of the Kingdom;
let us take the cross
into every place.
We will look to Christ
for his fruitful Spirit,
building peace on earth
by his boundless grace.
